

“VYAPAR PE VICHAR 2026” – EXIM TRADE TALK

An Exclusive Conclave on Trade Policy, Customs & Compliance Friday, 11 September 2026 | Vivanta by Taj, Hinjawadi, Pune.

Lucrative Exim Pvt Ltd & CTC India & Exim-LawG, organised an exclusive conclave focused on contemporary developments in trade policy, customs, compliance and international trade law namely “Vyapar Pe Vichar 2026 – EXIM Trade Talk”. Deccan Chamber of Commerce Industries & Agriculture, Pune (DCCIA) was the supporting Partner for the event.

The conclave brought together senior professionals and stakeholders from the EXIM, customs, logistics, trade compliance and technology sectors to deliberate on key regulatory developments and practical challenges impacting India's foreign-trade ecosystem.

Mr. H. P. Srivastava, Chairman, DCCIA Pune, was the the Guests of Honour at the event alongside Mr Niraj Khinvasara Executive Director, WTC and Ms Aunprita Mehta – Chief Taxation – Arcelor Mittal Nippon Steel India Ltd. In his address, Mr. Srivastava said if India has to realise the dream of becoming a fully developed economy by 2047, the exports have to grow and make significant contribution to GDP. He cited the example of China's growth rate during 1980 to 2006 and India's higher growth rate in earlier years. During last decade, there has been hardly any growth in Merchandise exports from India and our global share is stuck at 1.8%. However, there has been significant growth in Export of Services where our global share is more than 4%. While we must look at increasing our merchandise exports, we need to also focus on export of services which will be shortly contributing almost 50% of our exports, he added.

The programme featured five moderated panel discussions covering:

- Classification Disputes – Post-Finance Act 2026 & FTA
- BIS & SCOMET
- Clearance & Logistics
- Role of AI & EXIM Digitalisation in Compliance
- Cross-Border Global Compliance

The sessions featured participation from senior industry professionals and subject-matter experts representing leading organisations across manufacturing, logistics, customs, taxation, trade compliance and technology.

A key highlight of the event was the launch of “Axodian – Global Trade, simplified”, a trade-technology platform offering solutions including Customs Law Manual (CLM), HSN-MATE and Pristine – CVP Trade Declaration for supporting trade compliance and EXIM processes.

The event concluded with a networking dinner, providing participants an opportunity to interact with industry peers, exchange insights and explore professional collaborations.

The event was well attended by about 250 participants.
