About Shree Shivkrupanand Swamiji & the Gurutattva initiative

Since its inception in 1994, the Himalayan Samarpan meditation has guided millions of individuals in this journey towards inner peace. Unlike other meditation practices, this Himalayan meditation is a 'Sanskar' which doesn't involve any kind of physical activities or complex techniques. It is based on an innate live experience – an 'Anubhuti' – which can be accessed by everyone, beyond all distinctions of race, religion, language or castes. Himalayan Meditation is followed in more than 65 countries all over the world.

H. H. Shree Shivkrupanand Swami, who first introduced this meditation to the masses, is himself an enlightened yogi. Having spent 16 years of his life in the Himalayas gathering the divine wisdom from many revered Himalayan Gurus, he has been relentlessly offering this ancient wisdom across all sections of the society since the last 25 years. This initiative, led by the 'Shree Shivkrupanand Swami Foundation' has now evolved into a global spiritual platform known as Gurutattva.

Over the last several years, Swamiji has addressed several prominent assemblies, including a special session organized by the AYUSH Mantralaya for the Members of the Indian Parliament, and more recently, a specially convened session at the Central Hall of the Maharashtra Vidhan Bhavan & the Legislative assemblies of Gujarat & Goa too. Just recently, he was also invited to the State Police headquarters of Maharashtra and also in Goa. Within India too, he has addressed several institutions of repute, including the IIT Kharagpur, IIM Nagpur, several medical institutes including AIIMS, Nagpur, KIMS, Karad and even corporate establishments.

Swamiji has been a regular invitee at the Theosophical Society, UK, in various forums across Europe, Canada, Australia, South Africa and several other countries. More recently, he was conferred upon the title of the 'Nepal Tourism Goodwill Ambassador' for his contribution in bringing to the world, the ancient wisdom that He received from His Master, who lived in the Himalayan ranges of Nepal.

It is worth mentioning that all activities arranged by the foundation are completely free of cost. Swamiji considers this as a divine offering, a Guru-prasad - which is invaluable, and hence cannot be charged!
